

1. How many cells does a fertilized egg contain six days after fertilization?
2. What is contained in that small ball of cells?
3. When do three fourths of all miscarriages occur?
4. How does the embryo keep from being "eaten" by the macrophages?
5. What hormone stops a woman's period when she becomes pregnant?
6. What hormone is detected by pregnancy tests?
7. What causes morning sickness?
8. What is morning sickness a sign of?
9. How big is the embryo at 6 weeks?
10. What is the embryo called after 9 weeks?

How big is it?

11. How much more blood will the mother's body need to produce?
12. What happens to a woman's heart when she is pregnant?
13. What happens to a woman's womb over the next several months?
14. What happens to her other organs?
15. Why do women urinate more frequently late in pregnancy?
16. Where does the fetus get calcium to help its bone develop?
17. How many weeks is a woman pregnant?
18. What is one theory that explains when a baby will be born?
19. What hormone regulates labor contractions?
20. Why is there so much pain during childbirth?
21. What was the sex of Marion's baby?